Monday, March 2, 2020

9:00am – 12:00pm – Checkin
9:00am – 11:30am – Pre-Conference Ancillary Group meetings
  • Finance Officer Peer Network............9:00am – 11:30am – Concorde C
  • Accreditation Network....................10:00am – 11:30am – Concorde A
  • Health Educator Peer Network...........10:00am – 11:30am – Ballroom ABC
  • Health Equity Peer Network.............10:00am – 11:30am – Forum
  • Office Support Peer Network............10:00am – 11:30am – Westheimer
  • Nursing Peer Network....................10:00am – 11:30am – Concorde B

Lunch on Your Own
1:00pm – 1:30pm – Conference Welcomes by TACCHO and DSHS Leaders – Ballroom ABC
  • TACCHO President and TACCHO Conference Co-Chairs
    o Robert Kirkpatrick, MS, Executive Director, Milam County Health Department & TACCHO President and Conference Co-Chair
    o Stephanie Hayden, LMSW, Director, Austin Public Health & TACCHO Conference Co-Chair
  • Associate Commissioner for Regional and Local Health Operations, Texas Department of State Health Services
    o David Gruber, MS

1:30pm – 2:45pm – General Session 1 – The Status of the Workforce and Workforce Development in Texas
  • Moderator: Stephanie Hayden, MLSW, Director, Austin Public Health
  • Speaker- Aaron Demerson, Commissioner Representing Employers, Texas Workforce Commission
  • Presentation Points:
    o Services provided by the Texas Workforce Commission.
    o Status of the employers and workforce in Texas.
    o Ways public health can utilize the Texas Workforce Commission.
2:45pm – 3:00pm – Break
3:00pm – 4:15pm – General Session 2 – Public Health Workforce Interest and Needs Survey (PH-WINS): What it Says About Workforce Development
   • Moderator -
   • Speaker: Kris Riley, DrPH, CPCC, Managing Director, Workforce - deBeaumont Foundation
   • Presentation Points:
     o National and state workforce findings from PH WINS.
     o Efforts taking place to maintain, retain, and recruit the public health workforce.
     o Potential workforce development opportunities in Texas.
4:20pm – 5:20pm – LHD Best Practice Session 1 – LHD Best Practices in Workforce Development
   • Moderator: Sabrina Vidaurri, MS, RS, Associate Director- Health Protection & Response - Tarrant County Public Health
   • Speakers:
     o Using An Employee New Hire Orientation To Achieve Accreditation - Claryssa Cortez, MPA, Performance Improvement Manager - San Antonio Metropolitan Health District
     o Implementation and Evaluation of Public Health Core Competency Trainings in a local health department - J’Vonnah Maryman, MPH, PhD, Associate Director, Family Health Services – Tarrant County Public Health
   • Presentation Points:
     o Implementing a structured new hire orientation that can help health departments meet required documentation in Domains 8, 9, and 11 for national accreditation through the Public Health Accreditation Board.
     o Ways to enhance staff knowledge and skills related to Public Health Core Competencies.
5:30pm - 6:00pm – Medical Reserve Corps: The Who and Where and Why You Need Them
   • Moderator: Robert Kirkpatrick, MS, Director, Milam County Health Department and TACCHO President
   • Speaker: Lisette Osborne, RN/BC, MSN, CHEP, Manager, Preparedness Branch, Center for Health Emergency Preparedness and Response, Department of State Health Services
   • Presentation Points:
     o
6:00pm – Closing Remarks - Adjourn
6:30pm – 8:00pm – Networking Social – Ballroom ABC

Tuesday, March 3, 2020

7:30am – 8:25am – Continental Breakfast
8:25am – 8:30am – Opening Remarks
8:30am – 9:00am - National Association of County and City Health Officials (NACCHO) Workforce Development Resources
   • Moderator: Robert Kirkpatrick, MS, Director, Milam County Health Department and TACCHO President
   • Speakers:
     • George T. Roberts, Jr, FACHA, Chief Executive Officer, Northeast Texas Public Health District and NACCHO President
• Lori Tremmel Freeman, MBA — Chief Executive Officer, National Association of County and City Health Officials

• Presentation Points:
  • NACCHO Work for Local Public Health
  • NACCHO Workforce Resources

9:05am – 10:05am — LHD Best Practice Session 2 — LHD Best Practices in Workforce Development
• Moderator: Adrienne Sturrup, BS, Assistant Director, Health Equity and Community Engagement Division - Austin Public Health
• Speakers:
  o If You Build It, Change Will Come: How Building a Data Warehouse Led to a Transformational Study to Drive Change at the Local Level - Umair Shah, MD, MPH – Executive Director, Harris County Public Health
  o How Collaborative Partnerships Can Increase Community Competency and Resiliency Among - Monica Tipton, MEd, Medical Reserve Corp Volunteer Coordinator – Tarrant County Public Health
  o A Public Health Response to the Alzheimer’s disease Epidemic - Glenda Redeemer, MS, RN, Manager, Chronic Disease Prevention – Tarrant County Public Health

• Presentation Points:
  o Planning your own large health study using local data to drive local policy.
  o The importance and value of utilizing a cross-generational approach to increase resiliency among vulnerable populations.
  o Three key ways Tarrant County Public Health is responding to the Alzheimer’s disease epidemic.

10:05am – 10:20am — Break/Hotel Checkout
10:20am – 11:45am — LHD/DSHS Regional Discussion
- Join public health colleagues from your geographic region to discuss workforce strengths, gaps, and opportunities to improve skills, training, and employee engagement.
  • HSR 1 and 9/10…Concorde A
  • HSR 2/3…………… Concorde B
  • HSR 4/5N…………..Concorde C
  • HSR 6/5S…………..Ballroom ABC
  • HSR 7………………..Forum
  • HSR 8………………..Westheimer

12:00pm –1:10pm – Awards Lunch Buffet – Ballroom ABC
1:15pm – 2:30pm — General Session 3 — Public Health Workforce Development Training Needs and Curriculum
• Moderator: Robert Kirkpatrick, MS, Director, Milam County Health Department and TACCHO President
• Speakers:
  • HRSA Region 6 Workforce Training Needs Assessment - LuAnn E. White, PhD, DABT, Professor and Senior Associate Dean for Academic Affairs - Tulane School of Public Health and Tropical Medicine, Region 6 South Central Public Health Training Center
  • Public Health 101 Curriculum - Courtney Dezendorf, MEd, Director, Office of Academic Affairs, Department of State Health Services

• Presentation Points:
  o Factors that impact workforce retention.
  o Factors that impact workforce satisfaction.
Public Health Courses available for public health professionals.

2:30pm – 2:45pm – Break

2:45pm – 3:45pm – LHD Best Practice Session 3 - LHD Best Practices in Workforce Development
- Moderator – ReJena Bolton, Health Inspector - Hardin County Health Department
- Speakers:
  - Building and Sustaining a Strong Clinical Public Health Workforce - Kenton K. Murthy, DO, MS, MPH, Assistant Medical Director and Deputy Local Health Authority – Tarrant County Public Health
  - Clinical Public Health - Community Focused Collaborations - Erin Beasley, BSN, CMSRN, Immunization Division Manager – Tarrant County Public Health
  - Human Trafficking and Intimate Partner Violence: Creating Partnership and Educating the Community - Amanda Brosnan, MPAS, PA-C, Physician Assistant – Tarrant County Public Health
- Presentation Points:
  - Implementing workflow changes and training without disrupting clinical operations.
  - Evaluating an informatics (electronic health record) approach aimed at supporting the provision of a large scale community immunization event utilizing a patient approachable delivery model through real time data entry.
  - Identifying specific skills sets for leadership and innovation as population health strategists across multidisciplinary community organizations.

3:45pm – 4:00pm – Closing Remarks and Adjourn – TACCHO Conference Co-Chairs